

Key investor information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

ASIAN CURRENCY BONDS

is a fund of FULLERTON LUX FUNDS

Class I (USD) Accumulation (the “share class”) - ISIN: LU0543883143

The Management Company of the fund is Lemanik Asset Management S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Objectives

The fund aims to produce long term capital appreciation for investors.

Investment Policy

The fund invests in fixed income or debt securities (which may be unrated or rated non-investment grade), including convertibles, denominated primarily in Asian currencies and primarily issued by companies, governments, quasi-governments, government agencies or supranationals in the Asian region.

The fund’s investment in onshore RMB (CNY) bonds may include bonds traded in both the CIBM and PRC Stock Exchanges, made through QFII, RQFII, Bond Connect, direct CIBM program, and/or any other means as may be permitted by the relevant regulations from time to time, for up to 35% of the fund’s net asset value.

The Asian countries may include but are not limited to China (including Hong Kong SAR and Taiwan), South Korea, India, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Indonesia, the Philippines and Vietnam.

Financial derivatives may be used to achieve the investment objective, reduce risk and for more efficient management of the fund. Financial derivatives are instruments whose prices are dependent upon or derived from one or more underlying assets.

The fund allows the Investment Manager to make discretionary choices when deciding which investments should be held in the fund, in accordance with the fund’s objectives and investment policy.

Benchmark: The fund is actively managed with reference to the benchmark, Markit iBoxx ALBI (USD Unhedged) Index, for performance comparison purpose.

The fund does not try to replicate this benchmark and freely selects the securities that it invests in. The deviation from this benchmark can be material.

During periods of market volatility, the Investment Manager will have the discretion to manage the fund in closer alignment with the benchmark as it varies the risk it takes against the index.

The fund’s base currency is USD.

The currency of the share class is USD.

Investors may redeem shares on demand. Dealing in shares is carried out on each bank business day in Luxembourg and Singapore.

This share class accumulates income received from the fund’s investments, meaning the income is kept in the fund and the value is reflected in the price of the share class.

Risk and reward profile

What does this risk & reward indicator mean?

- This share class is classified in category 4 because the value of the share may be subject to medium variations and consequently the risk of loss and the opportunity of gain may be moderate.
- The risk category has been determined on the basis of historical and/or simulated data and may not be a reliable indication of the fund’s future risk profile. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and the categorisation of the fund may shift over time.
- The lowest category of the risk & reward indicator does not mean a risk-free investment.

- Repayment of the initial investment is not guaranteed.

Which materially relevant risks are not adequately captured by the risk & reward indicator?

- Liquidity risk: Securities in the fund may be sold below their valuation due to insufficient liquidity in the markets.
- Counterparty risk: A counterparty may fail to deliver its obligations to the fund.
- Operational risk: Failures or delays in operational processes may affect the fund negatively.
- Event risk: Unforeseeable events such as political events, regulatory changes, tax law changes etc, may impact the fund’s performance.
