

Key investor information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

ASIA ABSOLUTE ALPHA

is a fund of FULLERTON LUX FUNDS

Class I (USD) Accumulation (the "share class") - ISIN: LU1242518857

The Management Company of the fund is Lemanik Asset Management S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

Objectives

The fund aims to generate long term positive return, which includes both capital appreciation and income.

Investment Policy

The fund invests primarily in, but not limited to, equities, stock warrants, index futures, cash and cash equivalents. The investment universe will include, but is not limited to, equities and equities-related securities listed on exchanges in the Asia Pacific region, as well as equities and equities-related securities of companies which have operations in, exposure to, or derive part of their revenue from the Asia Pacific region, wherever they may be listed. The Investment Manager may also make indirect investments in equities via participatory notes and other eligible access products (where the underlying assets would comprise equities defined above).

The fund's investment in China "A" Shares listed on PRC Stock Exchanges may be made through the Stock Connects and/or any other means as may be permitted by the relevant regulations from time to time, for up to 35% of the fund's Net Asset Value.

The fund will typically be comprised of a concentrated portfolio of a relatively small number of high conviction holdings, and will be constructed without reference to any particular benchmark.

Financial derivative instruments (FDIs) and cash may be used to actively manage the fund's market exposure with a view to protect the fund from a permanent loss of capital.

For the purpose of this fund, Asia Pacific excludes Japan (with effect from 20 March 2025, this sentence will be removed).

The fund may employ financial derivative instruments for hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes.

The fund may invest in money market instruments, money market funds, term deposits, bank deposits and other eligible liquid assets for treasury purposes and in case of unfavourable market conditions.

The fund may hold up to 20% of its Net Asset Value in ancillary liquid assets (bank deposits at sight, such as cash held in current accounts). Under exceptionally unfavourable market conditions and if justified in the interest of the investors, the fund may temporarily invest up to 100% of the fund's Net Asset Value in assets referred in these two last paragraphs of this section.

Benchmark: The fund is actively managed without reference to a benchmark.

The fund's base currency is USD.

The currency of the share class is USD.

Investors may redeem shares on demand. Dealing in shares is carried out on each bank business day in Luxembourg and Singapore.

This share class accumulates income received from the fund's investments, meaning the income is kept in the fund and the value is reflected in the price of the share class.

Risk and reward profile

What does this risk & reward indicator mean?

- This share class is classified in category 6 because the value of the share may be subject to high variations and consequently the risk of loss and the opportunity of gain may be high.
- The risk category has been determined on the basis of historical and/or simulated data and may not be a reliable indication of the fund's future risk profile. The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and the categorisation of the fund may shift over time.
- The lowest category of the risk & reward indicator does not mean a risk-free investment.
- Repayment of the initial investment is not guaranteed.

Which materially relevant risks are not adequately captured by the risk & reward indicator?

- Liquidity risk: Securities in the fund may be sold below their valuation due to insufficient liquidity in the markets.
- Counterparty risk: A counterparty may fail to deliver its obligations to the fund.
- Operational risk: Failures or delays in operational processes may affect the fund negatively.
- Event risk: Unforeseeable events such as political events, regulatory changes, tax law changes etc, may impact the fund's performance.
- Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect, Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect and/or any other similar programme ("Stock Connects") risk: The fund may be investing in China "A" Shares via the Stock Connects which may entail additional clearing and settlement, regulatory, operational and counterparty risks.

How can I get more information about the risks of the fund?

Charges

| One-off charges taken before or after you invest | |
|--|---|
| Entry charge | 5.00% |
| Exit charge | 2.00% |
| This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested and before the proceeds of your investment are paid out. | |
| Charges taken from the fund over a year | |
| Ongoing charge | 1.18% |
| Charges taken from the fund under certain specific conditions | |
| Performance fee | 15% of the amount by which the Gross Net Asset Value per share exceeds the hurdle adjusted High Water Mark on each Valuation Day during the relevant Performance Period, multiplied by the number of Shares in issue on the relevant Valuation Day. |

The charges paid by an investor are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing the fund. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

The entry and exit charges shown are maximum figures and in some cases you might pay less. The investor can find out the actual entry and exit charges from their Financial Adviser or Distributor.

The ongoing charges figure shown here is based on annual expenses for the period from 1 October 2023 to 30 September 2024. The ongoing charges may vary from year to year.

The figure of the ongoing charges excludes:

- Performance fee
- Portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the fund when buying or selling units/shares in another collective investment undertaking.

The performance fee calculated for the share class for the most recent business year amounted to 0.00%. The reference indicator is a hurdle adjusted high-water mark (HWM). A performance fee is paid when the fund overperforms its previous hurdle adjusted HWM over the calculation period, corresponding to the financial year of the fund. The performance fee is crystallized and paid at the end of the financial year. The performance reference period is not shorter than the whole life of the relevant Share Class I of the fund and cannot be reset.

For more information about charges, please refer to section on "Administration Details, Charges and Expenses" of the prospectus, which is available at www.fullertonfund.com.

Additional information concerning the performance fee is also available in the prospectus.

Past performance

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

All charges and fees, except for the entry and exit charges, were taken into account.

The past performance was calculated in USD.

The fund was launched in 2015.

This share class was created in 2015.
